

ORDINANCE NO. 4667

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CHANDLER, ARIZONA, PART III – PUBLIC SAFETY, CHAPTER 15 – AUCTIONEERS AND PAWNBROKERS, SECTIONS 15-1, 15-2, 15-3, 15-4 AND 15-6 OF THE CODE OF THE CITY OF CHANDLER

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CHANDLER as follows:

Chapter 15, Chandler City Code, is amended to read:

Chapter 15-1

15-1. - Definitions

In addition to the definitions prescribed in A.R.S. 44-1601, -1621, and -1641, the words and phrases of this chapter shall have the following meanings:

Pledgor. "Pledgor" is the person leaving pledged property with the pawnbroker.

Police department, means the Chandler Police Department.

15.2 - Report of transactions required; presumption; structuring, fees.

A. Every person engaged in the business of auctioneer, auction house, junk dealer, pawnbroker, antique dealer or secondhand dealer shall make out, at the time of the transaction, and deliver to the Police Department, a true, complete and legible report of all goods and articles received on deposit, in pledge, pawn, consignment, trade, exchange, or by purchase, except as otherwise authorized by this chapter. All reports made pursuant to this subsection shall be transmitted electronically in a manner and format approved and designated by the police department within twenty-four (24) hours after receipt of the property being reported. The provisions of this subsection shall be effective upon the implementation of an electronic reporting system approved by the police department. Each report shall contain all of the following information for each item received. All information shall be legible and either hand printed or typewritten, or electronically generated. The reporting party shall complete all the entries on the report form, except the signature of the person from whom the property is received, and shall enter "None" or "N/A" (not applicable) as appropriate:

1. A complete description of the property, including brand name, color and serial number, if any, and the quantity of identical items, if applicable.
2. The date and time the property was received.
3. The name, address, birth date and signature of the individual from whom the property was received. The reporting party shall require the person from whom he/she is purchasing or otherwise receiving the property to be identified by displaying a valid motor vehicle operator's license, a valid State non-operating identification license, a valid armed forces identification card, a valid passport with photograph or any other valid government-issued identification containing a photograph. The type of identification so used and any and all identifying numbers thereon shall be recorded by the reporting party on the report.
4. The name of the business receiving the property and the signature or other identifying mark of the person receiving the property on behalf of the business.

5. The physical description of the person from whom the property was received, including the following: height, sex, weight, race (if known), color of hair, and color of eyes.
6. The right index fingerprint of the pledgor or seller shall be placed on the hard copy of the transaction report. If the fingerprint is electronically generated it must meet NIST standards - (500 ppi). In the absence of the right index finger, the left index finger should be used with a notation on the report indicating that the left index finger was used.
7. The amount paid, loaned, or pledged for each item, group of identical items, or set of items.
8. A maximum of three (3) items may be entered on each report form to include electronic forms.
9. A fee of three dollars ($3.00) shall be paid for each report form in a manner, place and time set by the Police Department.

15-3. – Reporting exemptions

Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this chapter, the following transactions and or articles are exempt from the reporting requirements of this chapter:

- A. Transactions involving books and other printed materials, clothing (excluding animal furs or fur pieces), phonographic records, audio cassette tapes, compact discs (CDs), digital video discs (DVDs) video/computer game discs, and furniture.
- B. Transactions solely between merchants holding permits under this chapter or between merchants who would be required by this chapter to secure permits if their establishment were located in the City, or between a merchant holding a permit under this chapter and a nonprofit organization.
- C. Transactions involving articles purchased by a pawnbroker, antique dealer, auction house, auctioneer, junk dealer or secondhand dealer for less than fifty dollars ($50.00), except for the following:

15-4. – Holding Period

A. No article shall be sold, exchanged, transferred, or otherwise disposed of by any pawnbroker until it shall have been in custody thereof for twenty (20) calendar days after making out and delivering to the Police Department the report required under section 15-2. Any article held in custody shall not be altered or transformed in any way but shall be held in the same condition in which it was delivered to the reporting party. This subsection shall not apply to redemption of pawned or pledged articles.

B. A secondhand dealer shall retain any property obtained in a reportable transaction at its place of business or other storage location approved by the Chief of Police or his/her designee for a period of twenty (20) calendar days after making out and delivering to the police department the report required under section 15-2. Any article held in custody pursuant hereto shall not be altered or transformed in any way but shall be held in the same condition in which it was delivered to the reporting party.

C. In the case of property consigned to an auction house, no article shall be sold, exchanged, transferred, or otherwise disposed of until it has been in the custody thereof for the following periods:

1. Five (5) days after the date of delivery to the Police Department of the report required under the provisions of this chapter; or
2. Seven (7) days after the date of postmark of any report mailed to the Police Department under the provisions of this chapter.
